for accidents

Start with the basic. Get accident cover.

You can reimburse 80% of Vet treatments, up to your chosen coverage amount, for the following covered accidents:

1. Bone Fracture
2. Burn or Electrocution
3. Drowning Complications
4. Bite Wound
5. Snake Bite Toxicity
6. Tick Paralysis
7. Foreign Body Obstruction
8. Torn Nail
9. Embedded Grass Seed
10. Allergic Reaction to Insect & Arachnid Bites
11. Poisoning

From P15,000 for only P560/year to P30,000 for P920/year, pick the amount of cover that suits you and your furry family.

Vet says treatment costs increase with pet size. You can use your fur baby's size category in choosing your coverage amount. For example, Plan 15K is good for Chihuahuas. Chow chow on Plan 30K.

Just a guide, ultimately, it's your choice!

Next, choose which Optional Benefits you'd like to add to the basic accident cover

- Vet Reimbursement for Covered Illness
- Acute Dental
- International Travel Emergency Vet Treatment
- Pet Nap
- Essential Euthanasia
- Pet Owner's Liability

Add-ons

Let your and your furby's lifestyle guide you in ticking your add-on benefits.

Do you two travel to other countries?

Are you two extroverts that an accidental break or bite may be a possibility?

7. Gastric-Dilation Volvulus
8. Hip Dysplasia
9. Pyometra
10. Gastrointestinal Problems
11. Arthritis
12. Ear Infections
13. Renal Disease

Q What happens if I claimed for gastrointestinal problems and then my fur baby had ear infection 4 months after? Could I file claim for the ear infection treatment?

A Yes, you may. Up to five cases of covered accidents and 5 cases of illnesses can be filed each insurance year.
